

THE HARVEST (Word from the Lord 2018)

MATTHEW 12:24,37-43

2018 is a representation of the witness of the One and the "New Beginning." The tares are a representation of something noxious or poisonous; it is very harmful, corrupt, and causes dissention. While men are distracted, the enemy comes and plants these individuals of wickedness alongside the righteous for a period of time, until the final harvest. Now is the beginning of the final harvest.

Thus says the Lord for the year of 2018; This is My year for My people, the year of tear and separation. (TEAR - is associated with the "ripping apart" from the world where many will mourn, and is also associated with the word tear, as in tear drops) As the commercial jet sets to its final approach and the turbulence around it increases the closer it gets, so will I create such turbulence in all dimensional realms, that it will cause a dimensional TEAR both globally and spiritually. As the priestly garments were once torn because of blasphemous acts of individuals and the repentant attitudes of the priests, so will I tear back the hidden evils that have provoked My anger. For I have heard the cries of the innocent, just as I heard the cries of My people in the bondage of Egypt. I have made a way of escape for them, so I will do it again for the righteous and the innocent says the Lord.

Those who refuse to set their hearts towards Me will be snared by the traps of great delusion. For only true visual sight will be given to My righteous. Confusion will be common to those who do not know Me, and common sense will become a stumbling block to the wicked. I do a new thing, says the Lord, common sense cannot comprehend it. Only by My spirit will it be understood. I will release the early and latter rain; it will rain on all mankind and give everyone opportunity, as we enter this season of Plenty.

For some, I will rain coals of fire and I will turn their wealth into ashes. For others I will increase their barns that have been set aside for My purpose, to do My will. I will bless My people and cause jealousy to enter the hearts of the rebellious, which will cause curiosity to search me out. I will invade the treasures of darkness that belong to My people and I will expose the secrets that have been hidden from you. I will manifest My plan that I have hidden in your hearts. I will also cause unity and healing to escalate in My body, and My presence will become well known to My righteous. I will reject the haters and pretenders, and advance the lovers and worshippers of My presence. Those that are guided by My Spirit and My word will maintain peace, joy, righteousness, and prosperity. Those that are constant, consistent, and enduring will find My favor and protection. I will invade the education system and turn over the desks that promote and provoke deception. I have set My army in array to drive out the forces of evil and establish My banner.

Revelations will increase and revolution will be its fruits. America will be great again because I have caused it, and Israel will once again stand tall. Wars and rumors of wars will increase allowing exposure of your true enemies to be put down. My kingdom and government will begin its approach as My body prepares the way. The storm that approaches will bring chaos and confusion, but not for My people. Out of this storm I will bring harvest and blessings. I will expose false resources and release the true sources, invading every level of humanity's idolatry and ideologies changing the present course into a new season and a new world. I will prepare a way of escape to My beloved. Hear My children, from the Father of true love, stay hidden in me.
